

A DOCUMENTARY FILM

AFRICAN SOUL, AMERICAN HEART

20 years after fleeing from civil war, a Lost Boy of Sudan returns, determined to help today's orphans.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Time and Date:

September 22, 2010
7:00 pm

Location:

Alexandria Technical and Community College
Information & Technology Building
Auditorium 743

Contact Us:

1-888-234-1222 • DiversityToday.org
701-478-7800 • AfricanSoulAmericanHeart.org
info@AfricanSoulAmericanHeart.org

Featured speaker:

Deb Dawson, photographer; producer, writer, director of African Soul, American Heart.

Images of Duk Payuel, a traveling exhibition of Deb's photos from Sudan, has shown in several galleries in the region, including the Rourke Art Museum in Moorhead, MN and BAGA in Bismarck.

Deb's photos from Sudan may be viewed at DebraDawson.com/image.php

Sponsored by  draaa
DIVERSITY RESOURCE
ACTION ALLIANCE