

BLACK STORYTELLERS ALLIANCE PRESENTS

NOTHANDO ZULU Master Storyteller

Nothando Zulu has been performing for children and adults in Minnesota for more than twenty years and nationally for more than 15 years. Based in the culturally fertile Twin Cities of Minnesota, Ms. Zulu has drawn upon her own rich heritage as a farm girl from Virginia, to add the many nuances and ironies of life to her craft.

In a power demonstration of orality, the audience ceases to be mere spectators, they are empowered participants in a living presentation. The experience is truly memorable! Ms. Zulu weaves history, folklore and personal experience into stories that reflect the traditions of Africans and southern African Americans. Ms. Zulu pulls from an extensive resource of colorful, funny characters whose antics and follies leave audiences pondering their own life's lessons.

Friday, February 12, 2010
6:00 p.m.
Alexandria Technical College
Gymnasium—Room 120

This Event is FREE & open to the public. No preregistration required.

www.diversitytoday.org

1-320-762-0221

1-888-234-1222