Leading the Way of Change: Cultivating a Community that Embraces Diversity and Inclusion

This fun, interactive and thought-provoking diversity leadership retreat is designed to help individuals improve personally and professionally in the areas of leading change, communicating courageously, managing difficult dialogues, and living a values-based life. As a collective group we will motivate, inspire and equip one another with the necessary leadership and communication skills to improve the lives of others. The goal of this retreat is to help every participant grow and develop as a leader while encouraging and inspiring positive change throughout the City of Alexandria and surrounding communities.

This Diversity Leadership retreat will explore the following topics:

- How to lead with a diversity and inclusive lens in life and work
- Communicating effectively across the four styles of communication
- Engaging in courageous conversations during emotionally charged topics
- Practicing Emotional Intelligence to inspire change and transformation
- Identifying leaders strengths and weaknesses to build trust and increase influence
